

West Water Intensive Training

April 24th – May 2nd 2015

West Water camp is located on the beautiful high desert of the Utah, Colorado border, forty five minutes from the Grand Junction, Colorado Walker Field airport and five hours from Denver & Salt Lake City. It's warm during the day and cool at night. At 5000 feet in elevation, the stars and moon are more beautiful and bright. Miles away from civilization, for over a 15 years, students from around the world have found the solitude, and nature of the area, a powerful adjunct to their study of Taiji.

This camp has no indoor sleeping arrangements. Everyone has to bring their own tent and bedding for camping and personal things like towel, soap, shampoo, sun block, hat and flip flops. Keep in mind late night temperature could drop down to freezing. Meals, showers, washing machine and toilets along with nice dining and training hall are provided. For more information: alexdongtaiji@gmail.com

All pre-camp arrivals are required to pay for food and help out.

Make payment to:

Alex Dong
69-11 Yellowstone Blvd. Apt. B27
Forest Hills, NY. 11375

or via Paypal account to alexdongtaiji@hotmail.com, with Paypal fee charged to sender. Or send it as a gift so there's no fee to both parties.

Please complete the following registration form. Be sure to email Alex the completed registration form ASAP. Be sure to bring with you in a sealed envelope confidential medical information for your file upon arrival.

At a wrap-up meeting after last year's Camp, many additional students joined the Steering Committee and brought a lot of new ideas to the table. One suggestion was to solicit voluntary donations for capital improvements benefitting Westwater's infrastructure, safety, and comfort. Alex would receive these donations and prioritize the use of the funds. Anyone interested in participating in this new opportunity should direct payments to Alex Dong. No credit cards at this time, but checks or Paypal are fine. Donations are neither tax deductible, nor applied toward other camp fees.
